

Ancient Siam

Located within a 30-minute drive from Bangkok on the Sukhumvit Road, in the Province of Samutprakan, Ancient Siam encompasses over 320 acres of land, with varied landscape comparable in shape and form to the whole country of Thailand.

Interesting Statistics

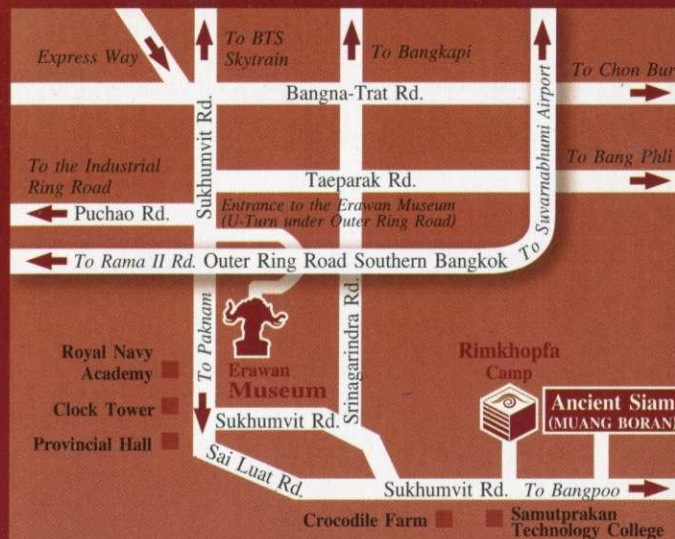

Area	: 240 Acres
Shape	: Corresponding to map of Thailand
Ground Breaking	: 1963
Number of Monuments	: 116

“

Ancient Siam

is an excellent reflection of Thailand's multi-faceted ancient culture presented in an authentic and visually exciting setting.

”

Getting to Ancient Siam, Samutprakan

1. By Car or Taxi

Take the Express Way as far as the Samrong - Samutprakan Exit. Turn to the Samutprakan Intersection. Turn left along the Sukhumvit Road (towards Bangpoo) until you get to km.33. Ancient Siam is on the left.

2. By Bus

Take air-conditioned bus No.511 (Southern Bus terminal-Paknam) to the end of the line. From here, take the mini-bus No.36. It passes the entrance to Ancient Siam.

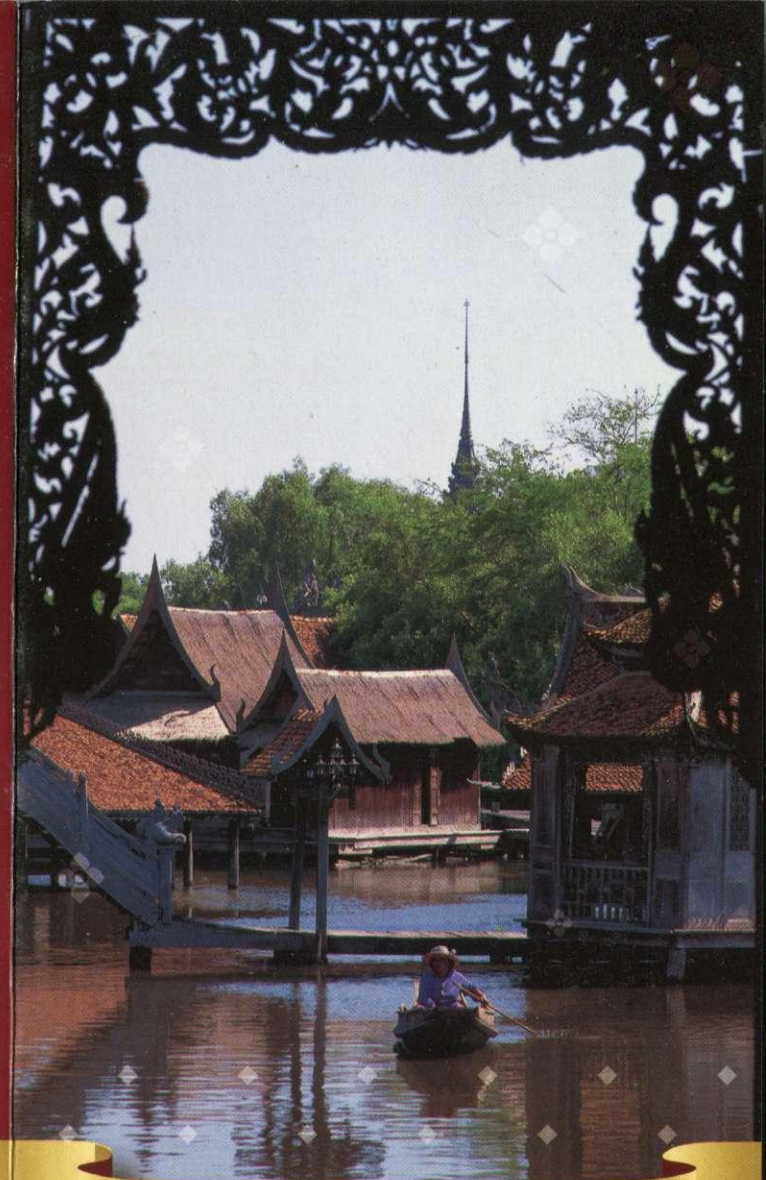

Open everyday from 08.00 a.m. - 05.00 p.m.

Ancient Siam, Samutprakan

Sukhumvit Road, Bangpoo

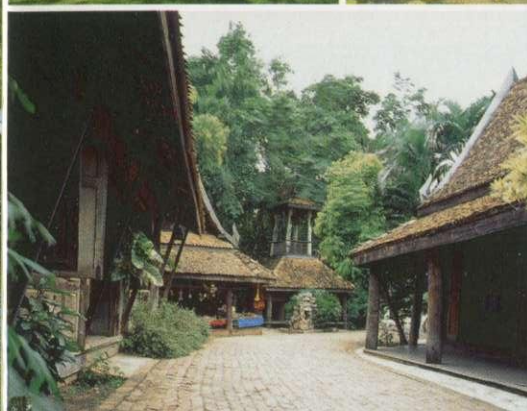

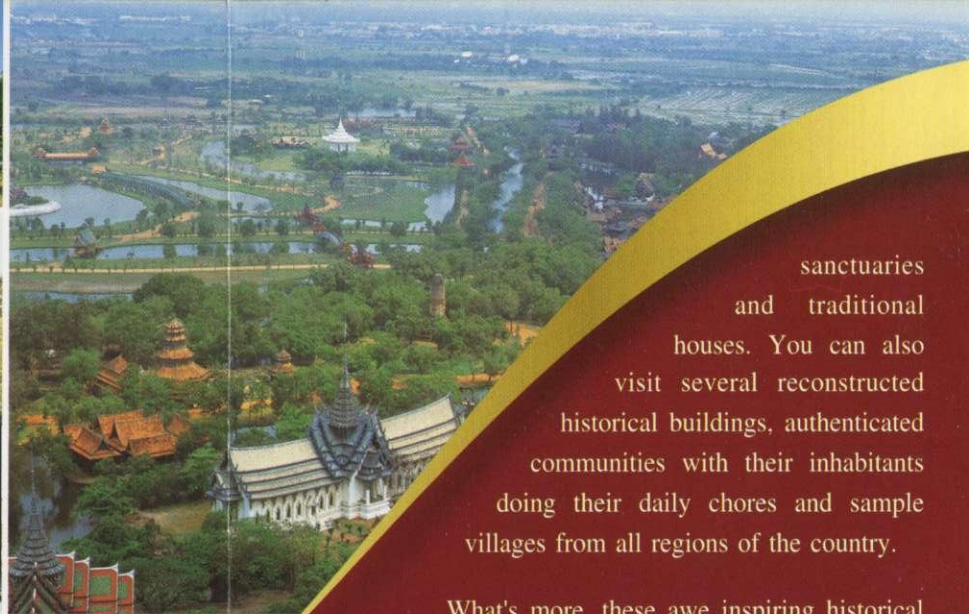

Tel : 66-2-7091644-5, 66-2-7091648 Fax : 66-2-3239253

www.ancientcity.com

Ancient City Group

❖ Ancient Siam ❖
Samutprakan

“
Ancient Siam
Gateway to Thailand's Cultural Heritage
 ”

Ancient Siam is like an open book of history and an open door to the real Thailand. Here you will find numerous reproductions of palace halls, temples, stupas, stone sanctuaries and traditional houses. You can also visit several reconstructed historical buildings, authenticated communities with their inhabitants doing their daily chores and sample villages from all regions of the country.

What's more, these awe inspiring historical and cultural symbols have been further enhanced by their surroundings, specially created and subtly merged, to reflect a social and cultural atmosphere of the past. New creations such as the Sumeru Mountains, the statue of the Goddess of Mercy, Kuan Yin, and the Garden of the Gods have also been incorporated to convey the cultural and religious beliefs of people in these ancient communities.

Certainly, the one thing you must not miss is a visit to Ancient Siam. It will offer you in a nutshell most of what Thailand is all about past, present and future. You may consider a walk to explore all historical buildings, museums, monuments and the new creations full of amazing artistic details and of great beauty. Or, if you wish, you may join an organized tour. Even with a modern comfortable vehicle, it will take you hours to do justice to every one of the some 116 spots of interest.

A visit to Ancient Siam, will give you this unique overview from which to start your journey to the rest of Thailand.